What is Alabaster

The Alabaster Offering provides funds for property and buildings around the world. It gives a sense of permanence, the attitude that the Church of the Nazarene intends to "put down roots." Eighty percent of the money is used in world mission areas, and twenty percent goes to multicultural congregations in the United States and Canada. Alabaster funds help provide land for most Work & Witness projects. The entire offering goes toward the construction of churches, schools, medical facilities, and homes for missionaries and national workers.

How Are Alabaster Offerings Received? The Alabaster Offering gets to the mission field via several avenues. The most widely used is the Alabaster Box. Individuals are challenged to regularly contribute the cost of items they desire but do not need. The boxes also serve as reminders to pray for those people who will benefit from Alabaster buildings.

In September and February, the money is collected. Sometimes a "march offering" is received with individuals carrying their boxes to the front of the church and pouring the money into a large offering container. The way an offering is received is as varied as the world areas in which the Church of the Nazarene has a presence; however, it is always accompanied with a spirit of rejoicing.

Many churches receive regular offerings throughout the year that are designated as Alabaster funds. This is often a part of the Faith Promise plan for missions giving. However, the semi-annual offerings should still be received, allowing opportunity for giving by those not participating in other ways.

Alabaster should be well-publicized. All ages are encouraged to participate with leaders educating local churches as to the need for centers of holiness evangelism around the world.

History of Alabaster

In 1948, Rev. Elizabeth Venum, Global Council member, was asked to think and pray about a challenging project for NMI. Rev. Venum knew if God wanted the project to take place, He would provide the plan. On the return trip from Kansas City, God gave her His plan of giving "love" gifts. It was modeled after the sacrifice of the woman who anointed Jesus' head with expensive perfume poured from an Alabaster jar (Matthew 26:6-13).

At the Global NMI Council meeting in 1949, Mrs. Venum told of the Alabaster plan God had given her. The Council unanimously adopted the plan, and the first offering was received in 1949.

The Board of General Superintendents approved the plan for Alabaster funds to be used exclusively for buildings and properties in cross-cultural ministries.

Now, more than 60 years later, Alabaster is still strong, having provided more than 8,300 projects since 1949. Faithful Nazarenes around the world have given more than $92 million dollars for this much-needed ministry.

SUNDAY SCHOOL
Make the Connection

SDMI CONVENTION
We will not be having a Fall SDMI Convention!

I personally wish to thank the great Illinois District and local Sunday School team, pastors, laypersons and all involved with the inspiring work of Sunday School, for the tremendous love and support extended to me the past 23 years as I led the Illinois district Sunday School. Your cooperating, reporting, supporting through Sunday School budgets, attending Spirit Rallies, Conventions Team Day and conventions and children camps.

Thank you to the District SDMI Board and Dr. James Spruce for the 2nd Mile Award and check presented to me at opening night of District Assembly in July. It truly has been a joyful and exciting journey promoting and leading the work of Sunday School.

I am confident that the newly elected District SDMI Chairman, Rev Tim Crump, will provide outstanding leadership and new direction for the work of Sunday School across this great district. I believe... "EVERYBODY OUGHT TO GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL".

CHURCH NEWS

On Sunday, July 25th Fairfield Fountain of Life was blessed with 24 in attendance. Glory! No special event just regular services. Pastor Middleton preached with a live rabbit. The six kids were right up front and listening. The Lesson was on Life in the Blood. Three went to the altar. God is on the scene at the fountain of life.... thank you, Jesus. We also had an anniversary celebration for Ronnie and Carolyn Pollard after church in the evening service. They celebrate 44 years of marriage.

-- Rev. Dennis Middleton, pastor

Parkview Nazarene recently had a celebration service (June 27th) where LaVerne Vivian was given the 2nd Mile Award for her 50+ years of service to the church. Pictured above are Pastor Jay Shoff and Mrs. Vivian.

Joshua Mondy was recently honored as the Superior Cadet of his MS2 ROTC class for the 2009-2010 academic year. Mondy is a member of the Roaring Tiger ROTC Battalion on the Olivet Nazarene University campus in Bourbonnais, Illinois. The Superior Cadet Decoration Award is awarded by the Department of the Army. Criteria for the award include being a regularly enrolled ROTC cadet, being in the top 25% in ROTC and academic standing, and demonstrating officer potential. Mondy is the son of Rev. Tim and Laura Mondy of Centralia.

--- Pastor Tim Mondy

CARLINVILLE

Our Annual Kid Day (Promotion Sunday) event was held on June 6th with puppet shows, games, and a kid-food potluck. This year's Kid Day also served as a kick-off for Vacation Bible School. We also had a "Draw Your Sunday School Teacher" coloring contest. To add to the day, we took in six new members all of which were between the 3rd- 6th grades.

July 26-30 Kids from the Carlinville and Auburn COTN's went to Pine Ridge Christian Center for KIDZ CAMP 2010. Fourteen kids attended. Tracy Hay served as Kid evangelist and held chapel services twice daily. Kids participated in crafts, sports and Bible memory in addition to the chapel services. Every time an altar call was given the altars were full. God is good and we are grateful to Him for all that He accomplished during this great week.

Passing the Baton

“So since we stand surrounded by all those who have gone before...let us run with endurance the long race set before us.” – Hebrews 12:1-2

When I was in high school, I ran track, mostly sprints. I was always one of those runners who brought home the prize, only it was usually the ribbon for 6th place. I was valuable to the team in that a 6th place showing still earned points for the team, but I saw the back of a lot of jerseys and the bottom of a lot of spikes flashing in front of me, and I never felt what it was like to be the first to cross the finish line myself.

I did, however, win a few first place ribbons in my time – in the relays. I often ran the 880 yard relay. In that race, four runners ran 220 yards sequentially, each passing the baton to the next runner in a quest to win as a team. No single runner ran the entire race. Only the baton covered the distance. Each runner would pass the baton to the next runner. The exchange was crucial; the baton could not be dropped. If passed successfully, however, and carried victoriously, each of the runners could rejoice in the victory as a team. It didn't matter so much who ran the first leg or the last leg, only that the baton was passed and the victory won. I think our district churches and pastors ought to run our race more like that, and it is happening.

In October of 2006, our District Mission Strategy Team, led by Dr. Spruce and District Missionary Tim Young, challenged our pastors to lead “churches that plant churches.” Not many answered the call to the starting line. But Pana, led by Pastor Allen Ebber, stepped up to the starting line. Jerry Gravatt, who served at Pana, heard the call of Christ to help begin a NewStart church in nearby Vandalia. The vision took hold in the Pana congregation, who volunteered to launch the church with several service projects in the community. Soon, four families and several teens, numbering about 15-20, started meeting at the Old Lincoln Schoolhouse in Vandalia. Jerry and Dara Gravatt led this new congregation that soon began to celebrate with new faces and victories. Pana continued to support the work by helping financially.

Pastor Ebber explains, “The more people we sent, the more people we had show up in Pana, and God provided financially as well.” The District also approved grants for equipment, and when a new building was found across the street from the high school, helped with the rental fees. Supporting the new congregation and the Gravatts became a team effort as well when the Shelbyville church began to provide financial support for nearly a year. Tables, kitchen and nursery equipment were donated from the Effingham facility, and the sound system was provided from the Abundant Life (Springfield) church.

Lessons of patience and trust were learned along the way. Allen and Jerry learned to work together to allow God to direct the new congregation as He chose—letting them find their own style of worship, and shape their community in their own way.

Over the last four years, Pana got to rejoice together with the Vandalia congregation by celebrating a combined baptismal service where six new Christians from Vandalia were baptized along with ten from the Pana church. The “Heaven's Gates / Hell's Flames” presentation, held at Pana, included several participants from the Vandalia congregation.

New ministries were beginning to reach out at Vandalia as well. When I visited the congregation last year, the worship service was suddenly invaded by nearly twenty Greenville College students, full of youth and enthusiasm for new opportunities to minister. Several folks from the congregation began going across the road to the high school to serve coffee and donuts to the parents and teens arriving for school in the morning. Pana had answered the call and began the race faithfully and God was blessing.

Last winter, however, God began to lead the Gravatts to make a change in their hectic lifestyle of living between two communities. Jerry felt released from his ministry at Vandalia and would resign early in the new year. Lila Chaplin, ordained elder from Pana, would serve during the interim. Pastor Ebber, freshly returned from a sabbatical rest, began with his leaders to reevaluate Pana's continued work at Vandalia.

Nick Briggs, a locally licensed minister at Casey, was approached about assuming the role of pastor in Vandalia. The Casey congregation “commissioned” them and sent them off with their blessings. Though 70 miles away, Nick and wife Melissa, began to make the weekly drive to Vandalia to preach and serve the young congregation. He was welcomed with open arms.

Last month, the Pana church made the difficult decision to release the Vandalia church from their sponsorship. But as they did, the Casey church began to consider how they could support the Briggs' new ministry at Vandalia. With the unanimous support of the Casey church board, Casey has begun to provide financial support. Last Sunday, Nick and Melissa returned to share reports of their new work in Vandalia, and the Casey congregation responded with great joy and promises of prayer and volunteer support as well.

Pastor Ebber and I see this as a “passing of the baton” from Pana to Casey. Pana will continue praying and supporting in various ways, while “sharing the blessings with Casey,” says Allen. “We feel like we've moved from being a parent church to being a sister church.” The relationship between Casey and Pana congregations will be strengthened as well.

Please join the District Mission Strategy Team in praying and supporting the Briggs and the congregation at Vandalia. The baton has been passed, the race continues, and all who have prayed and given will rejoice together at Christ's victory there.

In Jesus,
